EDUCATION RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE YOUTH

1. The doctrine of Christ is the centre of Christianity. Every Christian youth must possess an acceptable level of the nature of Christ in the context of the Godhead and the plan of salvation. {Explain nature of God}

2. Have a thorough knowledge of the Bible. As a Christian young person the Bible remains the main source for intellectual preparation to defend your religion.

3. Be thoroughly informed of the manuals/Constitutional documents of your denomination -Most denominations have constitutional policies that govern their day -to- day practices and administrative operation. Every youth should be aware of their constitutional rights, responsibilities and obligations to the denomination that there are in.

4. Have a good knowledge base of the extra-biblical materials that are unique to your denomination- Every Christian denomination roots its doctrines in the Bible. However, for the reason of biblical explanation, doctrinal developments and preservation, the production of extra-biblical materials are generated throughout the life of the denomination, some of which are similar to other Christian denominations. If a youth is going to be biblically comprehensive in the context of her/his denomination these extra-biblical materials must be a part of their educational repertoire.

5. Have a fair knowledge of the heritage/history of your denomination- The heritage and history of any denomination is fundamental to its present and future. Of such, young people are perpetrators. If inadvertently this escapes the youth that denomination can be made obsolete in two or three generations.
