INVOLVEMENT RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE HOME

1. As far as is possible always involve the child/youth in family worship, decision making, plans and the execution of plans; their ideas and suggestions.

2. Encourage your child/youth to create activities/games to share with others at home and church.

3. As far as is possible, intentionally involve the youth in home activities that are transferable to church involvement. For example, conducting family worship, singing special at family worship,

4. Be flexible: When necessary make adjustment in the family program to fit the needs or schedules of the youth in order to get full participation and involvement.

5. Encourage your child/youth to involve their non-Christian and Christian friends in your family activities, such as picnics, dinner and family worship.
